Advice Portsmouth

What We Do

Advice Portsmouth provides free, independent, impartial, and confidential advice to people living in Portsmouth.

Our purpose is to give the right advice and appropriate support to help clients solve their problems. Our team of qualified professionals, support staff, and dedicated volunteers provide general and specialist advice in the fields of debt, welfare benefits, employment, housing, family, and consumer law.

Hate Crime Reporting Centre

Advice Portsmouth has partnered with Hampshire Constabulary to become a Third Party Reporting Centre.

As a Third Party Reporting Centre, we offer an alternative to speaking directly to the Police about a Hate Crime or Hate Incident. We provide confidential help and support to report a Hate Crime or Incident.

You can choose to remain anonymous and have no contact with police.

Please contact us on:

Who We Can Help

In the ebb and flow of modern life, it's easy to find oneself in a difficult situation. Disability, illness, job losses, family breakdown, mental health, and changes in law can bring hardship and additional challenges.

The compassionate, friendly, and knowledgeable team at Advice Portsmouth are here to provide you with advice and support to empower you to overcome these struggles.

You will never be judged, and you will never have to face this alone.

"My advisor was very knowledgeable, empathic, and knew exactly what help and advice to offer. She had a very professional approach and made me feel at ease as I suffer with anxiety. Thank you."

How We Can Help

We aim to provide the right advice and appropriate support for free to help you solve your problem.

Advice Portsmouth's highly skilled team of advisors are ready and waiting to help you with specialist and generalist advice on a wide range of subjects, including:

- Housing
- Form filling
- Welfare benefits
- Debt
- Employment
- General family issues
- Consumer issues

No enquiry is too big or too small. If there is anything you require assistance with then please contact us and our team will do our best to support you.

Each year we help the people of Portsmouth to secure over £1,000,000 through obtaining rightful welfare benefits, debt relief orders, and bankruptcy orders. That money helps people to regain control of their lives, empowering them to worry less and live more.
